Policy

Your privacy is important to us. At Twisted Pair Solutions (TPS), we will share with you the type of information we gather and how we may use that information.

The Information We May Collect

In general, you can visit the TPS website without telling us who you are or revealing any information about yourself. We may collect domain name and/or IP address, browsing behavior, and/or other non-personally identifiable information regarding what pages are accessed through the use of cookies or other browser tools. You may choose to provide TPS with personal information in order to access certain services or to correspond with us regarding employment or TPS products and services.

Cookies

"Cookies" are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. Our cookies do not contain any personally identifying information. They only contain a secure identifying code that we use to match you to your Personal Information whenever you return to our site. Your Personal Information is never directly connected to nor stored on your computer, but is accessed when we identify your cookie to provide you with a more personalized experience when visiting our site.

How We Use Your Information

TPS will use any information that is collected for internal business purposes only, in order to better serve your needs and the needs of our other customers. We will not disclose any personally identifiable information to any third party without your prior consent. Nor will we sell any such information.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

Our privacy policy may change from time to time to reflect new or improved site functionality or changing customer requirements. We will notify you of all such changes by updating these pages on our website.

Other Sites

Our site may contain links to other websites. We do not review the privacy practices of these other sites and recommend that you review their privacy policies before sharing your personal information.

Questions

Please contact us if you have any questions about TPS privacy policy or other legal guidelines.
